provide a sense of place. It blends a neighborhood community of classic Southern architecture with world-class amenities and acres of trails, gardens and parks. The par-71 Chancellors Course has been named "the best new course in Georgia" by Georgia Golf News.

"The State Botanical Garden of Georgia is extremely pleased to be the charity partner for the 2004 Southern Living Idea House at The Georgia Club," said Dr. Jeff Lewis, Director. "Just as Southern Living magazine provides ideas for the home and garden, the State Botanical Garden allows people to see first-hand many of these plants and their uses, so it's a natural partnership. And, funds resulting from the partnership will help us advance our mission of conservation, beautification and environmental education."

The house will be open for public tours five days a week, Wednesdays through Sundays beginning Saturday, June 12 and ending Sunday, October 17. Hours are 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $5.00 per person. The Garden will receive a portion of the ticket sales and in return will provide volunteer staffing for the 2004 Southern Living Idea House. For information on volunteer opportunities, see page 8.
